769. THE NUMBER 145.

VIRGINIA GAZETTE.

Open to ALL PARTIES, but Influenced by NONE.

BERLIN, October 22.

THEY write from the frontiers of Poland, that the Confederates purſue the Diſſidents with more fury than ever; that they plunder their churches, and throw bibles, and other books of devotion into the fire; that in Zychlin, a village near Conin, they ſeized the Sieur Majewſki, a Proteſtant Miniſter of about 70 years of age, dragged him to church with a halter about his neck, and locked him up there all night, after treating him with great inhumanity.

Warſaw, Nov. 9. The day before yeſterday, which was fixed on for opening the Diet, the Senators aſſembled at the King's Palace at ten in the morning; but they returned home at noon. We were then informed that the Diet would not be held: Of forty Nuncios who had come hither, only ſix appeared in the hall of the Caſtle where that order of the ſtate uſed to aſſemble.

Paris, Nov. 11. Paoli perſuades his people, that France has entered into conditions with England, to ſend over to Corſica only a ſmall and limited number of troops, and that in conſequence thereof it will be always an eaſy matter for him to withſtand them. He has juſt cauſed his Secretary Mattei, ſon of the Chancellor, to be arreſted, on a diſcovery that he was in correſpondence with the Marquis de Chauvelin. Our ſoldiers deſert to him, that they may have an opportunity of pillaging us. The object of the Marquis de Vallière's voyage to Corſica, is ſuppoſed to be the fortifying of our poſts in that Iſland, that our troops may paſs the winter there, with greater ſecurity. Bread riſes here daily.

Paris, Nov. 14. The Marquis de Valliere, Lieutenant-General of the King's armies, and Director General of the artillery, ſet out a few days ago for Corſica.

According to letters from the ſame Iſland, of the 30th ult. the Marquis de Chauvelin having gone on the 28th with ſome officers to reconnoitre one of the poſts of the malecontents, the latter, lying in ambuſcade behind an eminence, fired on the French officers, and killed the Chevalier de Bethiſi.

Leghorn, Oct. 29. The inhabitants of Iſola, in Corſica, have lately taken a French tartan, coming from Toulon, laden with meal.

LONDON, November 24.

Yeſterday morning, about eight o'clock, the remains of his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle were carried from his houſe in Lincoln's-Inn-Fields, in order to be interred in the antient family vault at Laughton, in Suſſex, in the following order: 1. The two Porters, mounted on milk white horſes, leading the van. 2. Eight of his Grace's domeſtics in mourning cloaks, mounted on grey horſes. 3. A Gentleman on horſeback, uncovered, bearing a ducal coronet richly gilt, laid on a crimſon velvet cuſhion with gold taſſels, two men with one hand on the horſe walking on each ſide. 4. Four mourning coaches, drawn by four horſes each, in which were his Grace's principal Gentlemen. 5. A Gentleman, followed by ſix livery ſervants in mourning cloaks, all on horſeback, cloſed the proceſſion.

The Dukedom of Newcaſtle-Under-Line is, we are informed, limited to the male iſſue of the preſent Duke, by his Lady the Counteſs of Lincoln, eldeſt daughter of the late Right Hon. Henry Pelham, and not to his iſſue by any other Lady.

It is particular, that in the ſhip Friendſhip, Captain Thompſon, for Jamaica, no leſs than three heirs to conſiderable eſtates are on board, viz. Peter Vallete, Eſq; Captain Spencer, of the artillery; and Miſs Jenkins: One of theſe is heir to about 12,000l. per annum.

By advices lately received from Greenock, in the north of Scotland, we are informed, that above 300 perſons have died at that place of the ſmall-pox, in which number were the two Clergymen of the ſaid town.

The Elector Palatine being in a declining way, the Dutchies of Juliers and Bergues will be diſputed by the King of Pruſſia; and France being engaged to guaranty that ſucceſſion to the reigning Duke of Deux-ponts, ſucceſſor to the Elector, who, in return, gives up his Dutchies in Alſace to France; this, moſt probably, will occaſion a war on the Lower Rhine.

It is not more ſurpriſing than true, that our good friend and ally the King of Sardinia conſented to the French taking poſſeſſion of Corſica, for which he is to poſſeſs certain provinces on the Borronean Lake, from the Houſe of Auſtria, which ſeems rather confirmed by the late marriage of the Duke de Chablais with one of the Arch-Dutcheſſes.

Nov. 26. His Majeſty was attended yeſterday to the Houſe of Peers by his Grace the Duke of Ancaſter and the Earl of Denbigh, amidſt a large concourſe of people, who teſtified their joy on his Majeſty's going to give his royal aſſent to the bill for prohibiting the exportation of corn, &c.

We hear that a great man in the law has given it as his opinion, that the law, conſtitutionally, does not allow of any alteration of records any more than it did of general warrants; and that they were both practiſed only as being cuſtomary, but both equally illegal and unconſtitutional.

Yeſterday the Earl of Lincoln, now Duke of Newcaſtle, was at Court, and delivered to his Majeſty the enſigns of the order of the blue ribbon, which his late Grace had been inveſted with.

Yeſterday arrived a mail from New-York, brought by the Harriot Packet, Capt. Hawke; and had only 26 days paſſage from New-York to Falmouth.

The French never had any great notion of Corſica (as it is ſaid) till the magazines of timber granted by James II. from Ireland began to fail, which has only been within theſe few years. Such was the political uſe they already have made of Corſica.

Nov. 29. They write from Peterſburgh, that it is generally thought that Count Romanzow will have the command of the grand Ruſſian army, to oppoſe the Turks, and that Lieutenant General Soltikow will have the command of the Ruſſian troops in Poland, and which will be conſiderably reinforced if found neceſſary.

The Chiefs of the Confederation at Bar in Poland, have ceded to the Ottoman Porte, by a formal act, Volhinia and Padolia, as well for themſelves as their poſterity, and agree to be tributary to the Grand Signior, on condition of enjoying the ſame protection as the inhabitants of Moldavia and Walachia.

We hear from Aberdeen, that there has been a very ſevere ſtorm along that coaſt, whereby two ſhips are loſt, and all the crews periſhed; and ſeveral others are miſſing.

Thurſday the Rev. Dr. Long, maſter of Pembroke Hall, and Lowndes's Profeſſor of Aſtronomy at Cambridge, now in his 88th year, began a public courſe of aſtronomical lectures on the zodiack and great ſphere.

An ingenious French Gentleman, who has lately returned to France from a voyage to South America, on board a Spaniſh regiſter ſhip, reports that the Spaniards have lately diſcovered ſeveral of the old ſilver mines, which were worked by the antient Indians before the conqueſt of that extenſive empire, particularly where they call De los Encomenderos, in the province of the Lipes, near the famous mountain of Potoſi, very rich of ore, and promiſes a laſting work, above 500 Indians being employed therein.

The mine of ſaltpetre lately diſcovered in North-America, it is ſaid, will be opened, and worked on the government account, as that eſſential article is now become an object of the utmoſt importance to this kingdom.

Some Tartars having croſſed the Neiſter, and committed ravages in Poland, have been ſeverely puniſhed, and the reſt given to underſtand, that they ſhould be puniſhed with death, if they dared to enter the territory of Poland without order.

A letter from a Gentleman at Bombay, to his brother in London, mentions, that "On the 13th of January, near eleven o'clock in the morning, a powder magazine, within fifteen yards of his houſe, was blown up by the premeditated malice of one Hart, a Quarter-Maſter Serjeant of Artillery, who being puniſhed the ſame morning for miſbehaviour, took this deſperate and diabolical ſtep to deſtroy himſelf, and be revenged on the public. There were about thirty eight barrels of powder contained in the magazine, which in an inſtant levelled many houſes to the ground. There were about thirty killed and ſixty wounded; among them was the Lady of the writer of the letter."

Extract of a letter from Vellauſe, (in the Eaſt-Indies,) May 7, 1763.

Col. Smith has at length taken Kiſnagurry, which, after a blockade for four months, was obliged to ſurrender. It is ſtrongly ſituated upon the ſummit of a high rock, almoſt inacceſſible; about ſix months ago we attempted to ſtorm it, but were repulſed with the loſs of forty of our beſt troops. It is at the diſtance of one hundred miles from Madraſs, every way environed with hills, on each of which is a fortreſs; but this renders our ſituation very unhealthy.

"The troops belonging to Bombay have lately taken a fort called Bangatour, in the territory of Heyer Ally. He is now preparing to revenge the loſs, and is marching towards them, in order to give them battle, with an army of fifty thouſand men. In my next letter, I hope to give you an account of the iſſue, which, no doubt, will be deciſive.

P. S. I have juſt heard that Commodore Ince, who was ſent with a ſmall force againſt Cannanore, has failed in the attempt. I ſhall be ſorry if this account is true, as a repulſe will be of bad conſequence, by ſhewing the black fellows we are not ſo invincible as they have hitherto thought us."

Leeds, Nov. 22. On Tueſday laſt died in this town, after having completed his 114th year, Robert Ogleby, the noted old tinker. It appears by his regiſter that he was born at Rippon, the 6th day of Nov. 1654: To corroborate which, his own account of himſelf is, that he was put apprentice in 1668, to one Sellers, a brazier in York, when he was 14 years old; ſerved him ſeven years in that capacity, and two years more a journeyman; then he began buſineſs for himſelf at Rippon, which he carried on five years, and failed; after which he went to Hull, and wrought journey-work there four years, when he entered into King James's ſervice; was ſent with the regiment into Ireland, where he changed his maſter, and was among the number of thoſe who fought under King William at the battle of the Boyne in 1690, where he ſaw the Duke of Schomberg fall. He ſerved about 23 years longer in the army in different places, and was diſcharged after the peace of Utrecht; but having neither wounds nor infirmities to plead for him, he got no penſion, ſo he reſumed his old trade, or rather took up the new one of travelling brazier, which he continued till within about four years of his death, and at the amazing age of 110, would carry his budget 20 miles in a winter's day, and do his buſineſs with as much alacrity as any other man at 50. But he ſoon after grew infirm, and was obliged to give up the itinerant trade he had carried on for above 50 years, and take to begging.

LIVERPOOL, December 1.

By a letter from Kirkwall in Orkney, we have an account of the ſhipwreck of a large veſſel, bound from Virginia for Aberdeen, on the 21ſt ult. in the Iſland of Sanday. The ſhip is broke to pieces, and not ſo much as one of the crew, being 20 in number, ſaved. Her cargo conſiſting of tobacco and ſtaves, has moſtly gone to ſea, and what has been caſt aſhore is ſpoiled with the ſalt water, ſo as to be of little or no uſe.

We hear that the queſtions to come before the Converſation Club, at George's Coffee-houſe, at 7 o'clock in the evening on Monday next, will be,

By what means may the property and peace of the inhabitants of Liverpool be beſt ſecured in the night?

Would it not be proper to publiſh the anſwers to the queſtions diſcuſſed in the ſociety, with the ſubſtances of the principal arguments?

It was alſo propoſed as a queſtion, Whether the Ladies converſation would not be of uſe to this ſociety; and if ſo, ought they not to be admitted? But as it is one of the rules of the ſociety, "That all perſons have liberty to attend this meeting," the anſwer is evident, and the company and converſation of the Ladies will be extremely agreeable, and eſteemed a particular favour.

NEW-YORK, January 9.

Extract from the Journal of the VOTES and PROCEEDINGS of the General Aſſembly of the Colony of New-York.

Die Mercurii, 9 ho. A. M. 28th December, 1768.

THE Houſe (according to order) reſolved itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to conſider of, and draw up, proper and conſtitutional reſolves, aſſerting the rights and privileges of his Majeſty's ſubjects within this colony, which they conceive have been greatly abridged and infringed by ſeveral acts paſſed by the laſt Parliament of Great-Britain: After ſome time ſpent therein, Mr. Speaker reſumed the chair, and Mr. Kiſſam reported from the ſaid committee, That they had come to the following reſolutions, viz.

As it is not only the common birthright of all his Majeſty's ſubjects, but it is alſo eſſential to the preſervation of the peace, ſtrength and proſperity of the Britiſh empire, that an exact equality of conſtitutional rights, among all his Majeſty's ſubjects in the ſeveral parts of the empire, be uniformly and invariably maintained and ſupported; and as it would be inconſiſtent with the conſtitutional rights of his Majeſty's ſubjects in Great-Britain, to tax them either in perſon or eſtate, without the conſent of their Repreſentatives in Parliament aſſembled; It is therefore Reſolved, Nemine Contradicente, That it is the opinion of this committee, that no tax under any name or denomination, or on any pretence, or for any purpoſe whatſoever, can or ought to be impoſed or levied upon the perſons, eſtates, or property of his Majeſty's good ſubjects within this colony, but of their free gift by their Repreſentatives lawfully convened in General Aſſembly.

Reſolved, Nemine Contradicente, That it is the opinion of this committee, That as his moſt gracious Majeſty is the common father of all his good ſubjects, diſperſed throughout the various parts of the Britiſh empire; and as the Commons of Great-Britain in Parliament aſſembled, do enjoy a conſtitutional right of humbly petitioning his Majeſty as the common father of his people there, for conſtitutional benefits, and the redreſs of grievances, the Repreſentatives of this colony, in General Aſſembly convened, lawfully may and ought to exerciſe the ſame conſtitutional right, when and as often as to them ſhall ſeem meet.

Reſolved, That it is the opinion of this committee, That this colony lawfully and conſtitutionally has and enjoys, an internal legiſlature of its own, in which the Crown, and the people of this colony, are conſtitutionally repreſented; and that the power and authority of the ſaid legiſlature, cannot lawfully or conſtitutionally be ſuſpended, abridged, abrogated, or annulled, by any power, authority, or prerogative, whatſoever, the prerogative of the Crown, ordinarily exerciſed for prorogations and diſſolutions, only excepted.

Reſolved, Nemine Contradicente, That it is the opinion of this committee, that this Houſe has an undoubted right to correſpond and conſult with any of the neighbouring colonies, or with any other of his Majeſty's ſubjects out of this colony, or belonging to any part of his Majeſty's realm or dominions, either individually or collectively, on any matter, ſubject, or thing whatſoever, whereby they ſhall conceive the rights, liberties, intereſts or privileges of this Houſe, or of its conſtituents, are or may be affected.

Mr. Speaker communicated to the Houſe, a letter from Thomas Cuſhing, Eſq; Speaker of the late Houſe of Repreſentatives of the Maſſachuſetts-Bay, to the Speaker of the General Aſſembly of this colony, dated the 11th of February laſt; which was read, and an anſwer thereto was drawn up by the Houſe, which they directed the Speaker to ſign, and to tranſmit the ſame to the ſaid Thomas Cuſhing Eſq; with deſire to communicate it to the Houſe of Repreſentatives at their next meeting.

Mr. Holland, from the committee of the whole Houſe, to whom was referred the conſideration of the letter of Peyton Randolph, Eſq; Speaker of the late Houſe of Burgeſſes of the dominion of Virginia, dated the 9th of May laſt, reported, That the committee had drawn up the draught of a letter in anſwer thereto, which they had directed him to report to the Houſe; and he read the ſame in his place, and afterwards delivered it in at the table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe.

Ordered, That Mr. Speaker ſign and tranſmit the ſaid letter to the ſaid Peyton Randolph, Eſq; with deſire that he communicate it to the Houſe of Burgeſſes at their next meeting.

WILLIAMSBURG, February 16.

We are informed that Mr. GEORGE SAVAGE, lately of the Secretary's Office, is married to Miſs KENDALL; a young Lady poſſeſſed of an independent fortune of at leaſt 6000l.

This day fortnight, as ſome of Mr. James Blair's children, were playing round a fire they had made near the river's bank, at his plantation in Prince George county, his daughter, a girl of about 11 years of age, happening to go too near it, her cloaths unfortunately caught the flame, by which, before any aſſiſtance could be given her, ſhe was ſo much burnt as to expire the next morning. [We recommend this unhappy accident as a caution to parents, to prevent their children from playing with fire.]

We hear from Providence, in New Kent county, that on the 8th inſtant, the Rev. CHARLES JEFFERY SMITH (who propoſes to ſettle and reſide on his eſtate there) opened a ſubſcription for erecting a PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, ſeventy feet in length, and forty in breadth, with galleries, and a ſteeple, which was generouſly encouraged.—The building of which will be let to the loweſt undertaker, on Wedneſday the 22d inſtant, at ſaid place, by the managers, who will attend there on that day.

 We have received the piece in anſwer to that in our paper of the 29th of December laſt; alſo an extract of a letter from a Gentleman on his travels, &c. of which proper notice will be taken, as ſoon as we poſſibly can.

VIRGINIA, ſc.

By his Excellency the Right Honourable NORBORNE Baron de BOTETOURT, his Majeſty's Lieutenant and Governor General of the ſaid colony and dominion, and Vice Admiral of the ſame,

A Proclamation.

WHEREAS ſome evil diſpoſed perſon or perſons, on the 23d day of November laſt, wilfully, maliciouſly and wickedly, ſet on fire the kitchen of JAMES BUCHANAN, merchant, of the town of Falmouth, in the county of King George, and on the 31ſt of January laſt, about one of the clock in the morning, did ſet fire to and burn down the dwelling-houſe of the ſaid JAMES BUCHANAN, in the ſaid town, with divers goods to a conſiderable value. To the end that ſuch atrocious offenders may be brought to juſtice, I have therefore thought fit to iſſue this proclamation in his Majeſty's name, hereby ſtrictly charging and commanding all Sheriffs, Conſtables, Officers, and other his Majeſty's liege ſubjects, to make diligent ſearch after the ſaid offenders, and them or either of them having found, to apprehend, and convey before any one of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, to be dealt with according to law. And for the more effectual diſcovery of the ſaid offenders, I do hereby promiſe his Majeſty's pardon to any perſon concerned (except him or her who actually ſet fire to the ſaid houſes) that ſhall make diſcovery of his or her accomplices, or any of them.

GIVEN at Williamſburg, under my hand, and the ſeal of the colony, this 13th day of February, 1769, and in the ninth year of the reign of our ſovereign Lord King GEORGE the Third.

BOTETOURT.

AS a farther reward to any perſon or perſons who will diſcover the above, he, ſhe, or they, ſhall be paid FIFTY POUNDS by the inhabitants of this town. ARTHUR MORSON.

DUMFRIES, Feb. 7, 1769.

MR. ROBERT BRENT, having on the 2d day of February, at the town of Dumfries, entered into a compoſition with ſeveral of his creditors, wherein he gave up ſeveral tracts of land in the county of Stafford, together with ſeveral ſlaves and other effects, to be ſold for their benefit; and Mr. George Brent, his father, having at the ſame time given up his tract of land in Prince William called BRENTON, of near 8000 acres, to be ſold, and the money (after mortgages diſcharged) to be applied in like manner, the ſaid Robert's creditors giving him a final diſcharge from any future claim on account of their ſaid debts; and it being alſo ſpecified in the ſaid compoſition, that ſuch other of the ſaid Robert's creditors as chuſe it, might be included therein, provided they ſignified their aſſent thereto within two months from the date aforeſaid; and we the ſubſcribers being appointed truſtees as well for the diſpoſing of the premiſes for the uſes aforeſaid, as for tranſacting the ſeveral things relative thereto, do requeſt all perſons who are deſirous of entering into the ſaid compoſition, immediately to make us acquainted therewith. We alſo deſire the ſeveral creditors will meet in the town of Dumfries on the 3d day of next April, to conſult on proper meaſures to be taken for diſpoſing of the ſaid lands, to the beſt advantage. We alſo beg leave to inform the public, that we do not propoſe to poſtpone the ſelling the Brenton lands longer than the 4th of next April; but that it will be then diſpoſed of on the premiſes, either altogether, or in lots, as will be moſt agreeable to the purchaſers. It will alſo be agreed on, at the day of ſale, whether the lands ſhall be ſold for ready money, or on credit; we incline to believe the latter.

RUN away from the ſubſcriber, on the 11th inſt. a Negro fellow named Charles, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, of a yellow complexion, ſpeaks ſlow and ſoft, and is about 27 years of age, an artful cunning fellow, and had with him when he went away, ſundry cloaths, but of what ſort more than common I cannot tell, only a bearſkin great coat, and a large pair of ſilver ſhoe buckles. He is a ſawyer and ſhoemaker by trade, and carried with him his ſhoemaker's tools. The ſaid fellow reads very well, and is a great preacher, from which I imagine he will endeavour to paſs for a free man. I hereby offer a reward of three pounds, if taken in the colony, or if out of it five pounds, paid by

TWENTY POUNDS REWARD.

RUN away from the Neabſco Iron-works, in Virginia, on or about the 10th of October laſt, a country born Negro man ſlave named BILLIE, the property of the Honourable John Tayloe, Eſq; he is about 30 years of age, very black, well made, 5 feet 8 inches high, puts on a four look when taxed with any thing amiſs: He had on and took with him, when he went away, a blue broad cloth coat, black cotton velvet jacket, and ſundry other ſorts of cloaths, beſides ſhoes and ſtockings of various kinds: He is by trade a ſhip carpenter, and is ſuch a proficient in that buſineſs as not only to repair, but to build all ſorts of ſmall craft. The day that he went off, he was accompanied by a dark Mulatto fellow named SCIPIO, the property of Mr. John M'Millan, of Prince William county, in Virginia, of much the ſame age and ſize as himſelf. They croſſed Potowmack river together, in a ſchooner's boat, to the Maryland ſhore, where they left her, and have, from that time, kept themſelves undiſcovered. As Billie was ſome time laſt ſummer brought from Carolina (to which place, under the ſanction of a forged paſs, he had travelled as a freeman) it is more than probable that if he is not now engaged by ſome ſhip builders to the northward, that he will endeavour to get on board ſome craft, bound for Charles-Town, or to ſome place in Carolina, where he expects to be free.

Whoever takes up the ſaid Negro, or Mulatto, and brings one, or both, to the ſubſcriber, or to Mr. John Calvert, manager of Col. Tayloe's mine-bank, in Baltimore county, or will ſecure them, ſo as they may be had again, ſhall receive, for each, a reward of 5l if taken forty miles from home, or the above reward, if at a greater diſtance, from the ſaid Mr. John Calvert, or from THOMAS LAWSON.

He is a very good pilot, and I expect will endeavour to get on board ſome ſhip, to make his eſcape; therefore I forewarn all maſters of veſſels to employ him in any reſpect; he is full 6 feet high, well ſet, and talks very loud. Whoever will deliver the ſaid Negro to me, ſhall receive FIVE POUNDS reward. 2 CHARLES LEE.
